Attention: Ms. Turner

Dear Ms. Turner:

Thank you for your correspondence dated January 8th, 2020; the Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) - International Events and Convention Services Program (IECSP) officially recognizes the following event:

79th Annual Canadian Association of Recycling Industries (CARI) Convention June 10 – June 13, 2020 Marriott Hotel Halifax, NS

The information provided to the CBSA states that there will be approximately 150 attendees for the event in Halifax.

It should be noted that non-Canadian exhibitors may import display items and exhibit booths temporarily as outlined in the provisions of tariff 9993.00.00.00 duty free, on the condition that the goods will be exported from Canada upon the completion of the event.

Under certain circumstances, the CBSA will require a security deposit on goods temporarily imported to Canada. These goods are normally documented on the Temporary Admission Permit (Form E29B).

Goods imported for sale and/or giveaways are not eligible under tariff No. 9993.00.00.00. These goods must be accounted for on a Form B3, Canada Customs Coding Form. Commercial release processing is fully explained in Customs Memorandum D17-1-5 (<http://www.cbsa-asfc.gc.ca/publications/dm-md/d17/d17-1-5-eng.html>). A Customs broker may complete and submit this documentation on your behalf.

The IECSP has been informed that ConsultExpo Event Services Inc. has been designated as the official customs broker for this event. If you have any questions regarding importing display materials into Canada or if you wish to inquire as to the brokerage services provided, please contact Diane Labbé-Deegan at 514-482-8886 ext. 2 or dianel@consultexpoinc.com.

CBSA requires everyone seeking admission into Canada to properly declare themselves to CBSA by providing accurate identification. CBSA will accept a valid passport as proof of citizenship.

If you have attendees from visa-requiring countries (<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/visas.asp>), please contact the Special Events Unit of Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC) at special.events@cic.gc.ca with the specifics of your event. They will assess the visa requirements of your event.

Visa-exempt foreign nationals, excluding U.S. citizens, now require an Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA) to fly to or transit through Canada. For more information please visit: www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/visit-canada/eta/apply.html

Are you flying into Canada? Would you like to potentially cut your processing time in half? The CanBorder – eDeclaration app for your smart phone is quick, simple and secure, operates in airplane mode (once downloaded) and allows you to create a declaration for up to five travellers with the same place of residence. For more information please visit: www.cbsa.gc.ca/new-neuf/app-eng.html

Persons who have been convicted of any criminal offences may be inadmissible to Canada. For more information please visit: <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/inadmissibility/index.asp>

Foreign nationals may engage in exhibiting, selling or displaying goods without a work permit provided they are not selling to the general public. Direct sales to the general public require a work permit. Speakers or judges may require a work permit. For more information please visit: <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/work/index.asp>

To facilitate Canadian border procedures it is recommended that exhibitors, attendees and any other participants be provided a copy of this letter for presentation to a CBSA Border Services Officer upon their arrival to Canada.

In conjunction with the presentation of this Recognition Letter, an itemized list of goods including a description, country of origin, quantity and value is required for presentation to CBSA. If your event materials will be imported by a commercial carrier or courier service, a copy of this letter should also be attached to any shipping documents.

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if you have any questions or require additional information.

Sincerely,

Jeff Donovan
